

Jose Trevino
Global Integrated Operations Leader
DuPont Photovoltaic & Advanced Materials

Jose Trevino is the Integrated Operations Leader leading integrated operations for the DuPont Photovoltaic and Advanced Materials business. Jose was most recently the Program Manager for the Electronics & Imaging Business, responsible for implementing standard manufacturing best practices and asset reliability measurements and improvements across the business.

Jose has held a variety of leadership positions since he joined DuPont in 1995, primarily stemming in areas of manufacturing having worked across 5 distinct DuPont sites in various site operations leadership roles. Most notable being positions as a Manufacturing Director for the E&C business from 2014 to 2017 and as a Manufacturing Site Leader from 2013 to 2014.

Jose received his Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) and Executive Education from the MIT Sloan School of Management.